ARTS CAMP FOR EDUCATORS & TEACHING-ARTISTS

JUNE 11-12

Graduate level credits available along with CEU's

This year's Arts Camp for Educators and Teaching Artists, provides an opportunity for you to explore many ways to add depth, variety, and new pathways to help ensure success for all students. Take a look at the briefs and schedule and then sign up for all of the classes that will help you integrate arts into any classroom setting to engage, inform & make meaning. A registration fee of $50 allows you to take as many of the 16 offerings on Monday and Tuesday as you would like - what a deal! The first twenty to sign up for the noon sessions will have their lunch included. Stay all day, take advantage of the noon offerings or enjoy one of the many unique and wonderful restaurants near the Paramount.

This year, graduate level credit for all sessions is available from University of the Pacific at a cost of $62 per credit up to 3 credits per course. Registration forms will be distributed and completed at Arts Camp. We will collect completed forms and checks covering tuition and submit to The University of Pacific at that time. More information is available here. CEU's will also be issued for all of the classes you attend.

Deadline for registration is Wednesday, June 6, but many classes have limited enrollment so register EARLY to ensure a place.

Cost: $50 registration for as many classes as you'd like
